1950

Dear Carole,

It has been heaps of nice being one of your buddies. Don't forget the innumerable good times we've had and as "Uncle Cy" would say -
"ye air a good gal, Callalpy."
Be sweet and I loves ya heaps,
"Yee"

Dear Carole,

Have<sup>we</sup> had some fine times these last years or no!!
Mostly yes! This applies especially to basketball, bus trips (remember that one to Sanford?), ball games, Sedbutters, and - our trip to Durham. I still get a large charge everytime I think of paying $4.50 to have those dresses pressed! That was one more fine weekend - except it wasn't a weekend, was it? Ye - Sr. was that weekend, and it was fun plus, wasn't it. Carole, I've really enjoyed having you as a friend, and I'm really looking forward to the next four years! Want you to come up to G. C.

With love,

P.S. Hope you like the book!

Liz Moore

Dear Carole,
I sure have had fun with you in the past, don't forget your next brother
Love,
Liz Moore

Dear Carol,

Of all the deals we have had, I reckon most of them turned out pretty well. Of all the parties we have thrown I am afraid I couldn't say which one was the best. We have been the best of friends all through High School although we did get mad for a few weeks. If we can through a few more parties like the last one between now and fall I reckon we can feel that our High School days were well spent.

Dear Carol,
again a fine
person and a dear
pal. Carol is being in school and working and I hope you find a big success
in every thing you
do. Love always,
Paul Wright

your loving buddy
Charles

Dear Carole,

We really have had some wonderful times together this year. I hope we will continue to have many more. I'm sure you will go places in college with your looks and cute personality. Lots of luck + love to a sweet ol' gal.

Love,
Martha

Carole,

I 's'ho' did hate to see such a swell bunch of seniors leave. We all will miss you.

Be good while you're gone.

Love,
Fore

Dear Carole,
Of course I've had a hard time trying to understand you, but I think, all in all, you are a sweet girl and I have had fun in school with you. In whatever you do my best wishes go out to you!
Good luck
Bobby (Pratt)

This was a fine year

Sad S All

Carole, I've really enjoyed your this year. I've never seen a girl in all my life who had so much to talk about all the time. Best wishes for success and happiness in the future.
Mildred Johnson.

Had fun in Glee club with you. We also made a couple
+ a half. When we did when I have dances with me. Lots of love
in the future
Love,
Snaky

Carole

You are a very bad, mean, hateful + conceited & very naughty. But still I really think you are very nice and I really love you a lot. Good luck in the coming year
in everything you
try to do.

Nineteen Hundred and Fifty

Love
Carl

Crow,

We sure have had fun this year.
Remember the "lunch line" and our "spots" which amounted to nothing. Good luck to you in the future.
"Babs"
Russell

Dear Carole,
You are a very sweet and likeable girl.
With your good ways you will make a big success in life!
Good luck in the future! She'
will miss, you next year.

Love always

Barbara
Jones

Dear Carole:
She will miss
you seniors next year. Maybe we'll be here. Love to you, Clausie a.

Dear Carole,
 Be whiz, it really has been fun going to school with you for these past few years.
 Our songs were better than anyone else could sing.
 I will never forget the good

School Song

Oh, hail to ole' Wadesboro High,
 Whose praises we ever will sing;
 Whose name, through all the ages,
 Will surely ever ring.
 We, your sons and daughters true,
 Will cherish and honor you dearly,
 And try to bring you glory due.
 So hail to thee!
 Oh, hail to thee,
 Our Alma Mater!

Dear Carole,
 She will miss
 you next year. Enjoyed being in Glee Club and

Foreword

*"All the world's a stage,
And all the men and women merely players.
They have their exits and their entrances,
And one man in his time plays many parts."*

High school days are like a drama, presented in four acts. We, the students, play many parts in this drama. As freshmen, we make our entrances; as seniors, our exits. Some of us take leading parts; others of us play minor roles.

In this 1950 edition of the HI-WAYS, "the play's the thing."

Dedication

*We, the Senior Class, do dedicate this,
the 1950 edition of HI-WAYS,
to our good friend and teacher,
Miss Frances DeLamar
who has played her part well.*

Dear Caroline,

Because of their experience and training the seniors take the leading role in the drama of their high school days.

Act 1

SENIORS

Dear Caroline,

We sure have had a lot of fun this wonderful senior year. I'll never forget the parties & good times we have.

Class Song

(Tune: Look for a Silver Lining)

Classmates, we'll soon be parting.

Our graduation time has come;

But our new ventures

We will be starting

As we leave our school days behind.

So remember that

Ours was the class of fifty,

And its fond recollection shall hold

A heartful of joyful memories

And treasures that shall always be so dear.

Seniors

Those who held the coveted title of seniors carried well the responsibility of upholding the school's ideals of scholarship, leadership, and character. This year the seniors engaged in many extra-curricular activities, and for their homeroom they won a radio-record player for selling the most memberships in the Booster Club. Their biggest projects for the year were the senior play, The Campbells Are Coming, presented on April 28th, and the sale of Christmas candy to raise money for the class gift.

On a bright September morning in 1938 a rather large group of anxious children stood with their mothers outside the grammar grade building. This was to be the Class of 1950.

Our first two years were under the capable leadership of Misses Mary Plunkett and Anne Little Masemore, Mesdames W. L. Ashcraft, Joe Liles, Chase Baughan, and W. L. McKinnon. They guided us in routine school life.

In our third and fourth years we were introduced to arithmetic and geography by Misses Julia Cameron, Geneva Neil, Barbara Weir, Fannie Dunlap, Alice Lampley, and Mrs. Elinor Gray. During our third year we were in an Operetta given by Mrs. W. L. Wildermuth, our public school music teacher.

Our fifth year was very exciting. We were on the top floor of the high school building. Mrs. Heck Allen and Miss Pauline Pinkston helped us in getting situated in our new building.

We had eagerly looked forward to the sixth and seventh grades. Now we were diagraming sentences and making notebooks, under the skillful direction of Misses Nora Boggan and Fannie Winfree, and Mesdames W. J. Gullege and W. W. Bennett. Our class increased as pupils from Wade Mill joined us. Seven of the class were chosen for marshals for the eighth grade graduation. They were Bobby Pratt, chief, Tommy Brame, Lib Moore, Jo Alyce Lackey, Dellie Hardison, Bill Covington, and Mildred Livingston.

In the eighth grade we advanced more in our studies under Misses Mary Mitchell and Margaret Adcock. However, Miss Adcock embarked on the sea of matrimony and from then until the end of the year we had continuous substitute teachers. We became known as the "Famous Eighth Grade" and anything that happened was blamed on us, even though we were often innocent. We organized a Student Council, which was patterned from the high school Student Council.

During our ninth and tenth grades Coach Shelton, Mrs. George Craig, Mrs. Thomas Wall, Misses Norma Smoak, Rachel Bruton, Laura Atkinson, Lucy Pate, Ann Carter, Edna Giesecking, Mary Alice Turner, Hermine Caraway, and Coach Hall did a splendid job of broadening our knowledge. Both the boys and girls entered sports in a big way. Several of us started working on the Student Prints and Hi-Ways staffs. Some of us were initiated into school clubs.

Our Climb to Stardom CLASS HISTORY

As we entered the last scenes of our high school days, we assumed new dignities. Our leaders for the Junior year were Misses Hermine Caraway, Dolores Martindale, Frances DeLamar, Jeanne Griggs, Mrs. Nancy Bowman, Coach Hall, Mr. Wildermuth, Mrs. Sam Harrell, and Mr. J. O. Bowman, Jr. During the year Mr. Terrell, our Superintendent, resigned and Mr. Wildermuth became Superintendent. Coach Shelton was temporary Principal.

The highlight of our Junior year was the Junior-Senior Banquet. The setting was a "Hawaiian Luau." We decorated the Country Club with bamboo huts, rambling roses, and a canopy of silver stars.

Faye Stogner was elected Booster Queen during that year. This was the second time a Junior became Queen. Margaret Moore was selected as our Christmas Festival Princess. She was the first Junior to receive this honor. Our Junior play, "Ready-Made Family," was directed by Miss Griggs. Bobby Spratt, Lib Moore, Lib Faulkner, Betsy Robinson, Fetzer Mills, Faye Stogner, Charles Scarboro, Helen Howard, Delores Short, and Joe Harkey were members of the cast.

Four of our class graduated with the Class of 1949. They were Bobby Kiser, Bill Covington, Mary Elinor Covington, and Becky Allen. Our marshals for the commencement exercises were Bobby Pratt, Lois Turner, and Lib Moore. Fetzer Mills received the Citizenship Cup, which is awarded to the most outstanding Junior, at the Commencement exercise.

And now we have reached the finale. Our formerly large class now numbers only thirty-five. Our class officers are: President, Bobby Pratt; Vice-President, Alvin Butler; Secretary, Faye Stogner; and Treasurer, Joe Harkey. Miss Carrie Sturgis is our Senior advisor. The Seniors chose as their mascot Sharon Ferree.

Our class has enjoyed the many improvements made in the school this year. Distributive Education, taught by Miss Evelyn Bullard, was introduced into our curriculum. All the rooms have been painted and new desks have replaced the old ones.

We, the Senior Class of 1950, about to be handed our Emancipation Proclamation, presumably being of sound mind and body, do hereby make and execute and publish this our last will and testament.

To Mr. Wildermuth (Uncle Willie), our superintendent, who has so patiently borne the trials and tribulations which come from having such a class as we are, we do leave our deepest appreciation and thanks for his help.

To Mr. Baucom, our fun-loving principal, who was "once a boy himself," we leave the many permits he has written for our many trips up town.

To Miss Sturgis, our wonderful adviser and teacher, we leave the many headaches that come with another senior class, and our deepest appreciation for helping us through this year.

To the faculty, we leave the peace of mind which eventually follows our departure.

To the Junior Class, we leave our record player, our homeroom, and any privileges that they can get.

To the sophomore class, we leave the privilege of being upper classmen.

To the freshmen we leave our sincere wishes for a happy and prosperous school life.

The following seniors have happily and unselfishly relinquished some of their traits.

I, Lib Faulkner, do leave my ability to get a man to Katherine Childs.

I, Lib Moore, do leave my big ways to Mae Glasecock.

I, Claudia Marsh, do leave my daffy ways to Anne Bryan Bowman.

I, Alvin Butler, do leave my ability to play basketball to Ray Martin.

I, Dick Roper, do leave my love for women to Hampton Allen, and may he use it well.

I, Charles Scarboro, do leave my studious ways to Ben Covington.

I, Jo Alyce Lackey, do leave my itsy bitsy voice to Nancy McQuague.

We, Joe Harkey, Jerry Wilkinson, Doug Britt,

To The Understudies

CLASS TESTAMENT

Alvin Butler, Vick Gilmore, and Dick Roper, do leave our places on the football team to whoever can get them.

I, Doug Britt, do leave my funny laugh to Bennett Faulkner.

I, Valdon Lovett, do leave my quiet ways to Albert Allen.

I, Helen Howard, do leave my size and ability to eat a lot to Pee Wee McRae.

We, Ruth Wright, Jessie McRae, and Midge Hildreth, do leave our ability to get engaged to any Juniors that can do as well.

I, Dewey Preslar, do leave my ability to drive the school bus safely and carefully to Fred Mangum.

I, Barbara Russell, do leave my hot temper to Beautelle Carpenter.

I, Vonnette Melton, do leave my athletic ability to Joyce Morton.

I, Archie Tyson, do leave my desire for an ideal girl to Hugh Baker.

We, Lib Faulkner, Charles Scarboro, Archie Tyson, Claudia Marsh, Faye Stogner, and Dewey Preslar, do leave W. H. S. with but one experienced cheerleader.

I, Mary Vann Wheless, do leave the ability to keep one man on the book to Sara Allen.

I, Lois Turner, do leave my reputation as the best piano player in the Senior Class to Ben Covington.

We, Ruth Treadaway, Mildred Starling, and Margaret Moore, do leave our quiet manners to Mary Anne Wall, Betsy Liles, Gwendolyn Maples, and Jeanne Wagoner.

I, Lib Moore, do leave my horse laugh to Mary Helen Coley.

I, Delores Short, do leave the address to my army man to whoever wants it.

I, Bobby Pratt, do leave my studious habits to Jimmy Hough.

We, Carole Gray and Fetzer Mills, do leave our ability to get to school at the last minute to Snake Harrington and Albert Allen.

I, Juanita Hanna, do leave my ability to sing well to Lorene Williams.

I, Johnny Hill, do leave my place on the Safety Patrol to whoever wants it.

I, Betsy Robinson, do leave my knitting to Katherine Childs.

I, Rusty Graef, do leave my Yankee accent to Joyce Morton.

This year the Junior Class was the largest in the history of Wadesboro High School. For the first time there were two Junior homerooms.

There was an unusual amount of talent in this class. Members of the Junior Class were responsible for all the art work that was used throughout the entire school. One of the Juniors was accompanist for the Glee Club and played for Chapel programs.

All the members of the debating team were Juniors. A Co-captain of both the football and basketball team was a member of the Junior Class.

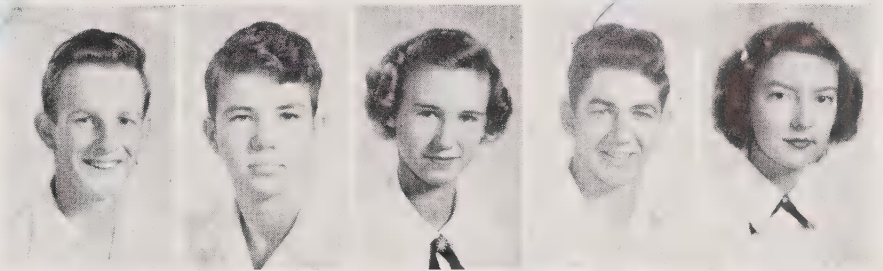

More talent was discovered in this class on December 12, 1949, when the Juniors presented a three-act comedy, YOU'LL DIE LAUGHING.

The climax of the Junior Class activities for the year was the Junior-Senior banquet which was held at the Country Club on May 5th.

The Freshmen required three home rooms this year since the class was unusually large. It took them a while to become accustomed to high school, especially changing classes, but they soon got straightened out. Some of the members of the class were on the publication staffs, and others were on the J. V. football team, the basketball team, the baseball team, and participated in the intermural basketball games. One class which was required of all Freshmen was physical education, and they were really enthusiastic about it.

Just as the work behind the scenes is a very important part of a play, so our extra-curricular activities are an important part of our school life. This year the clubs, the student council, and the publications have meant a great deal to us at W. H. S.

The Student Council is composed of an adviser and of boys and girls elected by the student body. They have many duties concerning the governing of the student body. This year they did an excellent job, especially in keeping traffic regulated in the halls and lunch lines and in conducting fire-drills.

Publications

Considered a vital part of Wadesboro High School activities are the publications—The Student Prints and the Hi-Ways. These publications are both entirely self-supporting, are exclusively run by students, and are advised by Miss Hermine Caraway. The staff members of both the W. H. S. newspaper and yearbook work without pay. Both publications are members of the Columbia Scholastic Press Association and the North Carolina Scholastic Press Association. In the Columbia Scholastic Press awards, The Student Prints won first place in typography.

President .....	DOSSIE HEAVENER
Vice-President .....	DWIGHT BURR
Secretary .....	KATHERINE CHILDS
Treasurer .....	WATT HARRINGTON
Adviser .....	MISS HOPE BAILEY

The Glee Club, under the direction of Miss Hope Bailey, made great progress this year and was very active. They gave a beautiful concert at Christmas, presented a Gay Nineties Review for the P. T. A., and performed in chapel assemblies and at other times.

The D. E. Club

President.....	JESSIE McRAE
Vice-President.....	MARGARET MOORE
Secretary.....	DELORES SHORT
Treasurer.....	DEWEY PRESLAR
Adviser.....	MISS EVELYN BULLARD

The D. E. Club is composed of distributive education students who study methods of buying and selling and then put them into practice by working 15 hours a week. They met once a month to have a social. At the regional convention, which some of them attended, Margaret Moore was chosen Regional President of D. E. Clubs of their district.

Debating Team

Four veterans from last year's debating team represented Wadesboro in the Triangular Debates in March. The topic for the debate was resolved: The President of the United States should be elected by the direct vote of the people. Mrs. Roy Gaddy and Mrs. Robert Thomas were the team's advisers.

The teams came out well in the debates in their district. The affirmative team defeated ten other teams in their district to win the district championship. This made them eligible to compete in the state finals in Chapel Hill.

Joe Burroughs and Freddy Allen were members of the affirmative team, and Betsy Liles and Ben Covington were the negative speakers.

Safety Patrol

OFFICERS

Captain .....	HENRY CLAY TREADAWAY
Lieutenant .....	VAN BUREN HORNE
Sergeant .....	GARY TEAL

The Safety Patrol is the school's safety organization which is run entirely by the students. They were always on the job before and after school at busy intersections and crossings, directing the traffic and helping the smaller children to cross the streets.

Spanish Club

Secretary and Treasurer ..... JO ALYCE LACKEY

Although the Booster Club's most important function is to boost pep and attendance at the ball games, it also boosts other school activities. This year Booster Day was observed the day of the homecoming football game with Lumberton. Before the game, a parade was held, and during the half the members of the club formed a "W" on the field and crowned the Booster Queen.

Although they didn't have much luck in the scoring department, the "Kittens," W. H. S. Junior Varsity, contributed greatly in training players for the first team. The Kittens, coached by Bob Hickman, were mostly boys from the eighth, ninth and tenth grades who were too small or too inexperienced to play on the varsity. Many of these boys will appear on the varsity roster of the Tigers next year.

The Varsity

W. H. S.'s varsity football team, the Tigers, were coached during the 1949 season by J. Ray Shelton and Bob Hickman. The Tigers received their pre-season training at Cullowhee, N. C. and played their first game after three weeks of practice. Although they won but three games, the boys never stopped trying and were a spirited team throughout the season. The Tigers won their Booster Day game for the eighth consecutive year and kept in force the well-known saying: "Shelton's men have never lost a homecoming game."

Cheerleaders

Important to the sporting morale of athletics at W. H. S. are the cheerleaders, who tirelessly yell encouragement at pep meetings and during games to cheer the Tigers on to victory. These boys and girls do not receive the praise that the football and basketball teams get, but they are a major part of the athletic program.

For the first time in the history of the school, this year there were more boys elected cheerleaders than girls. They all did an excellent job of keeping up the school spirit at home games and out-of-town games. It was the cheerleaders who always managed to charter buses and to get them filled with students to cheer our teams on at the out-of-town football and basketball games.

The 1950 girls' basketball squad was well supplied with veteran players, since all but two of last year's team returned. A new faculty member, Mr. Bob Hickman, took over the duties of coaching the team. One of the unique features of their season was a county March of Dimes Tournament in which they participated. Hamlet, Cheraw, Rockingham, Laurinburg, and Sanford are teams that they played outside the county.

Wadesboro High's Tiger basketballers played a long season this year, beginning in December and finishing up in March. The squad was exceptionally small, and injuries plagued the team at times during the season. Coached by Bob Hickman, a newcomer to the W. H. S. faculty, they enjoyed a spirited if not too victorious season.

Baseball Team

Enjoying the best season in several years, the 1949 Tigers baseballers won nine games. This team was a close-knit group of boys who co-operated unselfishly, and all contributed to the success of the team. These boys played no teams in the Eastern Conference, but contested mostly local outfits. All these players but one returned for the 1950 squad.

Those who back a Broadway play with their financial aid are called angels. Those who back the HI-WAYS with their advertisements could also be called angels.

The advertisements aid the students and others who look through the annual by telling them where they can get the very best of values. On the other hand, the annual helps the advertisers by giving them publicity now and for years to come.

Dr. B. G. Pratt
Belgium Congo
Africa

Dear Dr. Pratt,

I was very pleased to get your letter inquiring about your classmates and telling me of the mission hospital you have established in Africa. I think it is wonderful that you have done such a marvelous work there.

Tuesday afternoon after I had read your letter, I got into my rocket car and flew to the big landing field near Wadesboro so that I might go and find out about our old classmates. As I stepped from the car, Doug Britt came over to meet me. Doug plays pro-football in the fall and takes care of the field the rest of the time.

After I left the landing field, I decided I would go to a movie around at the "Love It" theater, which is owned by Valdon Lovette. Valdon has been running the theater for about five years.

I bought myself a box of popcorn, went in, and sat down. The name of the picture was "I Love Me" starring Lib Faulkner and Charles Scarboro. They are now world famous movie stars.

When the picture was over, I left and went up to "Fetzer's Drug Store," which is owned by Fetzer Mills. I bought some "Atomic Pills." They are supposed to cure everything. I hope I don't die from trying them out.

As I was leaving the drug store, I met Ruth Wright McLean with her husband, Gilbert, and their little boy, Gillie. They make a very nice looking family.

Going on down the street I passed "Harkey's Printing Company," which is owned by Joe Harkey. Joe prints the Anson County Tribune and draws cartoons for the Charlotte Observer. Some of his cartoons have appeared in several current magazines. As I passed by, Joe, Mary Vann, and their little girl, Mary Joe, were standing near the window. They waved at me.

Senior Class Prophecy

On down the street further I was almost blown off the sidewalk by a rocket car that came out of the "B-G-P-W" construction company, which is owned and operated by Alvin Butler, Vick Gilmore, Dewey Preslar, and Jerry Wilkinson.

By this time it was almost 5:30 in the afternoon. I had to go by the "Melted Into Stars" beauty parlor, owned by Vonnnette Melton and Mildred Starling, to have my hair fixed. While I was sitting there Claudia Marsh came in. She looked very tired, and upon entering the parlor, she said, "Those first-graders are going to be the death of me yet!" Claudia hadn't been there long when Betsy Robinson and Jo Alyce Lackey Wilkinson came in. Betsy is the Home Economics teacher at the high school and Jo is the math teacher. She and Jerry are happily married.

When my hair was finished, I went around to "CAROLE'S," a dress shop owned by Carole Gray, to get myself a dress. Willie Mae Gaddy, Amelia Hildreth, and Jessie McRae, who are all married, are the sales-ladies there. Jessie helped me find a nice dress.

As I was leaving, I met Margaret Moore, Barbara Russell, and Delores Short going into "CAROLE'S." These three are bookkeepers. Margaret, who was recently crowned "Miss Anson of 1960," works at Belks; Barbara works at "Rusty's Studio," which is operated by Rusty Graef. Delores works at "ROPER'S MOTOR SALES COMPANY"; which is owned by Dick Roper. Dick is also the editor of the leading paper in Anson county, The Anson Tribune.

By this time it was getting very late, and I, being in a big hurry, and not looking where I was going, ran smack into Johnny Hill, fell down, and broke my leg. Johnny owns a shoe store now. In about two minutes an ambulance from the "Hurry and Die" funeral home, owned by Lib Moore's husband came and took me to the hospital. In connection with Lib I might add that she has recently written a book, What It's Like To Live In A Funeral Home, which is a best seller. It has been selected as book of the month.

At the hospital I was taken care of by Dr. Archie Tyson, who is a world famous surgeon, and Helen Howard and Ruth Treadaway, who are head

I, Willie Mae Gaddy, do leave my cheerful disposition to Leach Ratliffe.

I, Fetzner Mills, leaving best wishes for the Juniors, do sign and seal this the last will and testament of the Senior Class of 1950.

CLASS HISTORY

During Christmas holidays, fluorescent lights were installed in all the classrooms. The P. T. A. gave the school a cyclorama for our auditorium.

Several of our class are the heads of Publications and Clubs this year. Lib Moore is Editor of the Annual; Lib Faulkner, business manager; and Jo Alyce Lackey, assistant editor. Dick Roper is Editor of the Student Prints; Bobby Pratt, assistant editor; and Claudia Marsh, business manager. One of our classmates, Margaret Moore, was elected district President of the Distributive Education clubs this fall.

This is not the end of our class history. When we graduate, we will begin a new role, one in the outside world. Our high school years have passed quickly and happily. As we launch out, using our class motto, "Strive, Learn, Dare," we will steadily go onward to fulfill our ambitions.

CLASS PROPHECY

nurses there. After my leg was set, I turned on the television set near the bed to the "Concert Hour." Who was guest soloist but Juanita Hanna! Juanita has just returned from a singing tour through South America.

Bobby, there is only one person left to tell about —Faye Stogner. She is now the youth director at the Presbyterian Church and is doing a fine job. She has recently drawn up plans for a new youth building which will be constructed this coming fall.

Well Dr. Pratt, your letter caused me to break a leg, but it is completely healed now and it was worth it to find out about all of our old friends. I hope you enjoyed hearing about your classmates. I wish I had time to write more, but I am leaving tomorrow on a concert tour and must get in two hours of practice tonight.

Musically yours,

Dear Carole,

I sho' so hate to see this year come too end but I'll never forget the good times that we're leaving behind - and don't forget either! - I'm sho' gonna miss not being with you in the years to come.
- Here's wishing you all the luck in the world and always stay just as sweet as you are.

Love Always,
"Yay" ("Cadie")

Dearest Carole,

It sure is going to seem funny next yr. without you seniors. And basketball is not going to seem like basketball with you gone. But everyone has to graduate sometime.

Best of luck to a wonderful grad.

Love,
Katharine

Dear Carole,

I hope you have ~~too~~ as good a time after school as you have had here.
We will miss you - especially in the Club + Biology - Good luck and here's hoping you have an exciting summer.

We sure have had our share of every thing and I love you. You really didn't amount to much, did you? I don't know what you are doing without me now. (Just fun)
I miss you
Love,
Mary

Dear Carole,
It really has been fun being in Biology with you. We certainly have had a good time and I know that we really will miss you. Best of luck to a swell gal.
"Johnny"

Dear Carole,
I really have enjoyed being in your class these past two years. We've got a hard road ahead of us but I believe we'll live!! We've had a few run-ins but they're over and forgotten now as far as I'm concerned. You're sweet!
Good luck!!
I Love you,
Mary Vonn

Dear Carole,

Just think! Next year you won't be able to argue and fuss with me. We have had some fine times though haven't we? I guess that I will have to find someone else to tell my troubles to. Hope you make it a Duke next year.

Dear Crew
Despite all our fussing I still love
you. Hasn't it been fun this past year,
in fact all twelve.
She has flown but
Be sweet and the
